Property Description

Location: Mijas, Costa del Sol, Spain

Who has not dreamed of living each day of our existence in a wonderful tale of the arabian nights? Casa Jasmin is a unique property of its kind, a villa full of charm and magic, a place to live impossible to find except in the Cerros del Aguila.

Perched on the heights of the Cerrado del Aguila, with a plot of more than 38,000m², Casa Jasmin offers us a 360 view of the Costa del Sol, sea view, mountain view, and if the weather allows it, the possibility of see the Sierra Nevada and the African coast.

The villa, of typical Andalusian architecture, of more than 1,000m², spread over 3 floors (basement, ground floor and first floor) offers its guests a large living room with direct access to the terrace, a spacious dining room, a TV room with a fireplace for winter evenings, fully equipped kitchen, storage room, 5 bedrooms with their own bathroom and the possibility of making another bedroom, gym with sauna, 2 offices (one of more than 40m² located in the tower with a panoramic view of the property), a swimming pool heated deck of more than 50m² with waterfall and some other mysterious pieces that we will have the pleasure of showing you during your visit.

The house has all possible and unimaginable security systems (video surveillance, motion detector, bulletproof glass, armored fire doors, etc...). The property has an incredible garden area, with its lagoon-type pool with waterfall in the middle of extensive tropical vegetation, the mountain of wonders with its waterfall over 10 meters high, which hides one of the most mysterious secrets of this fabulous property.

The house also has its own stable for 5 horses, and its training track. The stables can be completely converted into a service apartment because this facility is equipped with electricity and drinking water.

We could describe this wonderful villa for hours, but the truth is that it would be much better if you came to see it in person to completely fall in love with this unique property on the Costa del Sol.
