Property Description

Location: Fuengirola, Costa del Sol, Spain

This villa is ideally located in Torreblanca, with amazing views of the Mediterranean Sea and El Toro. When entering the gate, you have multiple parking spaces and a private driveway that leads you up to the front door. As you enter through the front door you arrive in a big living and dining room with an open plan kitchen. In the centre, there is a real fireplace, creating a cosy and homely feeling in the main living area of the house. The ground floor also includes a guest toilet and a laundry room. The best thing about this level is the big windows, allowing a lot of natural light to come in the house. The elevated position of the villa offers not only stunning sea views but also a lot of privacy. The outside area includes an outdoor terrace, garden, infinity pool and jacuzzi.

On the first floor we find 3 bedrooms including the master bedroom with an ensuite bathroom. The master bathroom has 2 sinks, a double shower and a freestanding bathtub. The master also includes a spacious walk-in closet.

All bedrooms have access to the terrace on this level. From the terrace you have access to the huge solarium.

Apart from the amazing views and luxurious master bedroom, the basement makes this villa even more unique. Here you will find an extra bed and bathroom, as well as large television room, and to make this villa complete, the basement also includes a wine cellar.

The location of this modern villa couldn't be more convenient, the International, Swedish, Finnish and German school are situated nearby, you are walking distance away to all amenities and the beach and only a 15 minute drive away from the Malaga airport.
