The community is like a small village inside the village. It is set at the entrance of Mijas where we are a few steps away from bus stops, bars and restaurants, farmacy and about an 8 minute walk from the main square. The large community pool was recently refurbished and offers the same amazing views of the mediterranean. As we all know, parking is a big issue in the village, but this urbanisation has its own parking so you never have to worry about where to leave your car.
