Property Description

Location: Costalita, Costa del Sol, Spain

Property reserved 29/09/2023

Renovated three-bedroom townhouse located within a sought-after community on the New Golden Mile. This spacious beachside property is set within a well-maintained gated community with multiple pools and mature gardens. The property is split over three levels, and briefly comprises; stairs to the front door leading to the entrance hall and a full family bathroom, a fully renovated open-plan kitchen, living and dining area leading to a private terrace with views over the swimming pools. Up one further level to the master bedroom, en-suite bathroom and very private bedroom terrace, with southerly views over the community gardens towards the sea! Downstairs are two further guest bedrooms with one having ensuite facilities, access to a private terrace, and well-maintained community gardens. The townhouse has marble flooring throughout and is ideal for anyone wishing to live life without a car. The development is gated and secure, with an onsite and perfectly maintained Tennis court and a Paddle Tennis court, and is located next to a mini-market, several restaurants and the beach. A large town is a short walk away (approximately 450 metres), with several restaurants, bars, and a supermarket, and the stunning sandy beach is under 300 metres (under 3 3-minute walk) from the property. Due to the fabulous beachside location and the massive size of this property, this is a fabulous investment opportunity, and we believe this is one of the best deals you will find on the beachside right now!
